

Water is a scarce resource and management of this resource is necessary for man's survival on this planet. Assess this statement.

There is enough water in the world if we would use reasonable precautions. Support or refute this statement.

Water is a renewable resource. Support or refute this statement.

Water is a valuable resource, it should be owned by humanity not corporations.

Privatization of water resources is an equitable method of utilizing the world water resources.

Conservation is the answer to the water issue.

The use of nuclear energy is a good alternative to combustible fuels. Support this statement.

Nuclear energy is too dangerous to continue as an alternative energy in the US. Explain.

The arms race to attain nuclear bombs can be managed by multinational agreement and international co-operation. Support this statement.

All nations should agree to stop using nuclear bombs as a national defense strategy. Explain.

All nuclear energy and nuclear weapons technology should be stopped today. Assess this statement.

The issue of _____ is important to the understanding of the world we live in because.....

The issue of _____ is unacceptable and must be changed. Explain.