Course Description: AMH 1020 United States History II (3) (A.A.) This course meets Area III of the A.A./A.A.S./A.S. general education requirements. This one-term course of United States history covers the end of Reconstruction to the present. Emphasis on historical study to determine the social, economic, and political problems of the 20th and 21st centuries

Course Performance Standards: The student, at the successful completion of this course, should be able to:

1. Examine history from a wide range of human experience.
2. Demonstrate the use of healthy skepticism to evaluate interpretations of history.
3. Examine and apply habits of historical thinking to become more competent, informed and active in the local community and in the nation at large.
4. Demonstrate knowledge and understanding of how and why the United States came to be what it is today.
5. Analyze the major issues confronting the American people as the 21st century begins.
6. Describe the significant social, cultural, political, and economic events and trends that have influenced the development of the American nation since 1877.
7. Explain the development of the conservation/environmental movement over the last century, including its successes, failures and problems in this area today.
8. Analyze the development of the welfare system, the legitimate criticism of the current system and ways in which the current system could be improved.
9. Describe the dominant characteristics of the mass national culture of the 1920's.
10. Identify the major steps in the emergence of the United States as a world power.
11. Describe the course and significance of the Cold War.
12. Contrast and compare how Democrats and Republicans vied to redefine the proper role of national government.

13. Identify those variables since the 1970's that have eroded American economic supremacy.
14. Analyze those movements and groups that have transformed American society.
15. Examine how the New Deal influenced the nation's politics, economics, and social structure.
16. Evaluate how the two world wars and the depression changed the distribution of the American population.
17. Explain and identify the major cycles of American politics and the major challenges facing political leaders and the political system today.
18. Investigate how and why the status of minorities (racial, ethnic, women) in America has changed since 1877 and the challenges that remain for minorities today.
19. Identify and explain how and why industry, agriculture, and labor have changed since 1877. What challenges face these sectors of the American economy today?
20. Critique opposing attitudes toward urbanization and immigration.
21. Identify the challenges faced by the United States in respect to urban life and immigration policy.
22. Critically evaluate the work of thinkers and writers in the field.
23. Interpret historical events from a variety of perspectives.
24. Evaluate the importance of historical study.

Website and E-Mail: The website has all the materials the student needs to successfully navigate the course. It also has links to the text, supplemental readings, and a calendar for the course. All communications via e-mail should be at the sandy_crihfield@sarasota.k12.fl.us account. I check my e-mail at least once a day but do not expect an immediate answer it will take 24 hours for a guaranteed reply. If you want me to preview an assignment or store a document you may use Angel or the Yahoo address to send it. At the same time e-mail the sandy_crihfield@sarasota.k12.fl.us address to tell me to look for it. I only look at Angel and the Yahoo site once a week. Make sure to put your full name and AMH1010 in the subject line. If you do not have an e-mail address you may use the Yahoo account by signing in as dr_crihfield and the password is school. This account is only used for assignments.

Attendance Policy: Excused Absences and make-up work
Students will be permitted to make up all missed assignments/tests for excused absences. You will have one day to make up your work for each day of excused absence. For example, if you are absent on Monday and Tuesday, you would have Wednesday and Thursday to make up all work. Unexcused Absences: Every unexcused absence results in the loss of Employability Skills point(s). “Unexcused Absence” is defined as having missed the entire class without a parent/guardian’s permission, or submitting an Attendance Request form to Attendance Office beyond the three (3) school days after the absence. Unexcused absences result in the loss of employability points for each class. Student are permitted to complete work missed on their day of absence, however they will receive a 30% reduction on all assignments, homework, class work, tests, projects, etc., due on the date(s) of the unexcused absence(s). You will have one day to make up your work for each day of unexcused absence. For example, if you are absent on Monday and Tuesday, you would have Wednesday and Thursday to make up all work. Tardy Policy: “Tardy” is defined as arriving to class after the bell rings.

For each tardy to class, the student cannot earn the Employability Skills points for that day.

Beginning anew each quarter, every tardy after tardy 3 will earn one half-hour after-school or lunch detention in the ISS room. Students are to bring their lunch from home on the day of the detention, and report directly to the ISS room. If the student fails to attend their detention, the consequence will result in a full day of In-School Suspension.

If a teacher assigns you a detention, you are to sign the detention form acknowledging that you have read and understand the form. Have your parent/guardian sign the yellow copy. Bring the yellow copy to detention in order to be admitted by the ISS aide.

Statement of Plagiarism: Statement of Plagiarism: Plagiarism is the use of ideas, facts, opinions, illustrative material, data, direct or indirect wording of another scholar and/or writer—professional or student—without giving proper credit.

Expulsion, suspension, or any lesser penalty may be imposed for plagiarism.

Employability Skills: According to school board policy, the following skills will be observed and recognized. The skills are: attendance, punctuality, bringing required materials to class, appropriate on task behavior, task completion, and displaying an attitude of cooperation. The employability component of the course is 20% of the course grade for each nine weeks. Additional information about employability skills will be discussed later in this document.

Grading Policy: The nine week evaluation is based on the following criteria: one semester paper, two multiple choice exams, and employability skills. Employability skills count 20% and the academic achievement is the remaining 80% of the grade. This 80 % is equally based on the following three criteria: 1) The student will write thematic essays on three films, two seen in class and one of their choice (1st nine weeks) and a semester paper (2nd nine weeks) 2) The student will complete one, in class, multiple choice exam each nine weeks. 3) The student will create outlines (two pages) on the supplemental readings which will be submitted for each reading the day of the discussion. Missed or late assignments will count as 0% and receive no credit. Make sure have up to date information as to due dates, assignment criteria, and evaluation procedures. Plagiarism, cheating with the computer or phone, and missed assignments will not be tolerated. All assignments must be word processed in Microsoft Word.

Assignments: 1) Read text in an ongoing manner to match material from lectures (approximately 10 pages a day) 2) Supplemental Readings should be read in an ongoing manner (see calendar for exact dates) 3) Additional assignments, as necessary, to prepare the student for the successful completion of the course goals 4) Write outlines of all supplemental readings 5) Take one in class multiple choice exam each nine weeks. 6) write three thematic essays on three films (1st nine weeks) and a 5 to 10 page paper (2nd nine weeks) 7) The student is responsible for learning APA citation to reference all written work submitted. 8) The student will create outlines (two pages) on the supplemental readings which will be submitted for each reading the day of the discussion.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PAPERS

Due Dates for all papers:

The student should be ready for all class assignments. No late papers will be accepted. All papers must be submitted to Turnitin.com no later than class time the day it is due. Absence from school does not change this rule. Turnitin.com will be open a week before the paper is due. If the student is absent from school the day a paper is due the paper must be submitted via e-mail no later than class time the date the paper is due. When the student returns to school a hard copy of the paper must be given to the instructor. Monitor the website calendar to check due dates for assignments.

Turnitin.com rules and regulations:

Turnitin.com is a website that all papers must be submitted to before the paper is accepted. The site helps the instructor check the paper for plagiarism. The student needs to register on the site and if the student is registered for another class they do not need to re-register. After the student registers the student does not need to do anything else till the paper is submitted. The class name and password is needed to submit the paper for this class. This information is also available on the website. The document can only be submitted once so be sure that all parts of your paper are in ONE document, written in Microsoft Word, and are submitted during the open week that the paper is due. After the student submits the document it will take from a few minutes to a few hours to complete the process. The student can check the submission but the determination of plagiarism is made by the instructor. If the student sees that they have made an error in citation and it is not past the due date the student can make the corrections on the hard copy of the paper and note the changes made by placing a note on the title page as to the corrections.

THEME PAPER

Select ten themes that represent a time period (any date or range of dates from 1600 to 1877). Each theme needs to be represented by a photo, artwork, song lyrics, or poetry. The student will write a paragraph about why this illustrates the theme the student has chosen. A second paragraph should explain the historical time period.

Elements of the paper are as follows:

Title page – name, paper title, date due

The theme, including the time period (dates)

The photo, artwork, song lyrics, or poetry need to be attached and properly cited.

Write a paragraph explaining the reason why the student has chosen the photo, artwork, song lyrics, or poetry to represent the theme. A second paragraph is then written to explain the historical context (relate the time period or event to the theme).

Grading Criteria:

The paper must be word-processed, turned in to turnitin.com, and be turned in on the appropriate date to be accepted. These are minimum requirements for the paper to be accepted for consideration for a grade. Failure to complete the above will result in the grade of 0%.

Title page, clean presentation, and organization – 5%

Citation (must be cited or the paper is a 0%)–15%

10 Themes and their photos or words – 20%

10 Paragraphs – 50%

Unique Quality – 10%

TOPICAL RESEARCH PAPER

Select a topic to research from the appropriate time period. Research topics need to be fully researched and correctly documented. Appropriate topics are: dance, music, religious sets, art, architecture, medicine, technological innovations, military, social life, family life, minority rights, and women rights.

The paper should be five to ten pages in length. The paper must be correctly documented. The must have at least five sources. One of the sources must be a book. Encyclopedic references are not to be used except to define a term or verify a date.

The topic must be approved by the instructor. Be careful of Internet sources, many are not historical research and are not sufficiently researched and documented.

Anyone can post information on the Internet!

Grading Criteria:

The paper must be word-processed, turned in to turnitin.com, and be turned in on the appropriate date to be accepted. These are minimum requirements for the paper to be accepted for consideration for a grade. Failure to complete the above will result in the grade of 0%.

Options for presentation of this may be discussed.

Title page, clean presentation, and organization – 5%

Grammar and structure – 10%

Citation (must be cited or the paper is a 0%) – 10%

Research material – 25%

Written thesis and support material – 40 %

Uniqueness – 10%

CURRENT EVENTS PAPER

Select five topics from current events that the student sees as relevant to the time period being studied. The student will then collect five current articles on the topic. The student will research an historical source from the appropriate time period to use as a comparison for the current article. Both articles must be copied into the paper and be correctly cited. The student will then write a one-page essay on how the past and present tie together on each event. The essay must be cited.

Grading Criteria:

The paper must be word-processed, turned in to turnitin.com, and be turned in on the appropriate date to be accepted. These are minimum requirements for the paper to be accepted for consideration for a grade. Failure to complete the above will result in the grade of 0%.

Title page, clean presentation, and organization – 5%

Grammar and structure – 10%

Citation – 15%

Selection of articles and historical sources – 25%

Essays – 35%

Uniqueness – 10%

Essay Instructions: The essays are to be word processed and APA cited. They are thematic persuasive essays and should be approximately two pages in length. Two of the essays will be written on films seen in class. The titles of the two in class films are: All Quiet on the Western Front and Iron Jawed Angels. There are review guides and citation material on the website under the honors tab. The other film may be chosen from the movie list on the handout and on the web site. Any other film may be submitted to the instructor for approval by copying a summary and review of the film. The due dates are attached to the syllabus and on the web site calendar. The film essays must be submitted to the instructor on the due date electronically if the student is absent with a hard copy due on the student's return. The grade for this assignment is the average of the three essays. The essays will be graded based on the following rubric.

Grading rubric:

Clear, word processed presentation – 10%

Understanding of film concepts- 20%

Correct APA citation- 20%

Thesis statement- 30%

Support material to explain thesis-20%

Outlines on Supplemental Readings: The outlines are to be word processed and submitted the day the reading is discussed. They are to include the author, date, the publication they are found in, and to summarize all the separate articles in each reading. There are no late outlines accepted and follow the same policy for lateness as the essays and papers. They should be approximately two pages long and should include the major points of the reading. The outlines will be graded on the above criteria and will be averaged together to form one outline grade.

AP, DUAL ENROLLMENT, AND HONORS COMMITMENT

ON TIME- being tardy is unacceptable, if you have to be late place the note on my desk and then sit and start note taking or the assignment without disturbing the class or instructor. Changes to the schedule and important announcements will be made at the beginning of the class period.

PREPARED-be ready for all class assignments. There are no late semester papers; these papers are dated with the last date they may be turned in. See the e-mail requirements if you are not in attendance the day they are due. Exams and other assignments follow the school policy (see attendance policy). Reading the text and supplemental readings is a minimum requirement. Monitor the website calendar to check due dates for assignments.

RESPECT- The student is responsible to follow all SHS and county rules and guidelines. The student is responsible to articulate his/her needs for a successful semester and behave in a respectable manner to all students and the instructor. There will be zero tolerance to disrespectful language, gestures, or written material as regards to race, sex, or cultural heritage. Tolerance of other people's ideas is important to the understanding and development of the American experience

RESPONSIBILITY-Come to class ready to work. NO CELL PHONES! Cell phones disrupting class is unacceptable, if I see it or hear it, it is gone for the day. This is the only warning. If this happens again, half of the employability points will be deducted (the same deduction will be assessed for the second offense). If you need to use the restroom, take the pass and go. We will be moving on without you. Make sure you understand the new attendance policy. Unexcused absences will result in a 10% reduction of the employability grade. Three tardies will have the same penalty.

ATTENTION AND NOTETAKING- This is not a place to do homework, to sleep, to talk on the phone, or to run errands. Playing on the computer during class lectures will cause the privilege to be revoked. If you choose to use a computer, follow all class computer rules. You have chosen to take on this responsibility.

HONESTY-Cheating is unacceptable, check your student handbook. Plagiarism is unacceptable and all cases of plagiarism will result in a zero. Failure to cite a source in a written assignment will result in an F on that assignment. You have chosen to be an honor student act like one.
