

APAm Govt Essays #2

- 1. The political process of selecting a representative government has changed over the course of American history. Discuss the changes and the course of these changes.
- 2. The legislative branch has specified and implied duties. Discuss the role of the legislative branch with emphasis on the changes and its present direction.
- 3. The substance, power, and issues of political parties have changed over the course of American political life. Assess this statement.
- 4. The media affects the political life of America. How is this balance maintained in America? (Support should include legislation, court cases, and specific data.)