

Transition sentences for paper 2 essay:

Quote to Content

This piece of evidence.....

The quote speaks to the heart of the issue.....

The perspective is illustrated by a deeper meaning.....

The quote supports the perspective by reinforcing .....

The heart of this is explained by.....

Quote to Source

It is important to understand the significance of this voice to the argument.....

The author of the quote is a very trustworthy source.

For instance, the study was done by.....

When looking at the evidence it is important to understand.

More than the support the quote gives.....

With the understanding of the essence of the passage the meaning is deepened by.....

Evaluation to Judgement

The strengths of the study and author's credentials only reinforces the content validity. The evidence supports the argument in a way that only clears the path for understanding the perspective. The evidence clearly expresses and supports the feelings of those who defend the end of GMOs in their region.

Although a complex study and an authority beyond reproach it is the support that the passage brings to the dispute that clearly supports the argument. The perspective is clearly represented in a way that speaks for the people of Kenya. Their voice demonstrates a compelling point of view for those who believe in the opposing argument of vegetarians.

